2.	Intimation of noted interests: None
3.	Confirm adoption of minutes of meeting 9 th January 2020 previously by email: Adoption without changes confirmed. Proposed: Carol Reid Seconded: Liz Moore	тсс
4.	Police Report: The January Police Report has been received and distributed to TCC members.	PS
5.	Finance Report: The bank balance is £3,666.06 with £921.58 free funds, £2,500.00 reserved for Festive Lights and £244.48 reserved for TERP.	ED
6.	Planning Matters: 6.1. Weekly List of Planning Applications: Nothing of concern to report. 6.2. Developer Obligations: Adam Sime, Senior Developer Obligations Officer, Aberdeenshire Council, presented a comprehensive explanation of the Developer Obligations (DO) function and process to the meeting. Adam then fielded a number of questions from the members, particularly about TCC recent experience with DOs, and specifically why there were no DOs required for the Station Garage housing development when the matter was agreed in 2016. The DO team had not identified any DO payment requirement. The maximum affordable housing number (10) was required. TCC will review if further action is required and will also prepare a submission to the DO team and Area Office of recommended proposals for future DOs in Torphins. (It was subsequently confirmed DOs are required for the approved development of the former Schoolhouse site, which is for sale by Aberdeenshire Council.) Adam was thanked for attending and for his enlightening presentation. Actions are added to the Open Action List.	ED AS
7.	Community Safety Report: 7.1. Dawn Tuckwood attended the recent local safety meeting providing a Community Safety Report to the group. HB advised the latest Safety Group network meeting had been cancelled due to lack of agenda.	HB
	7.2. CRd provided the poster on Being Seen for posting on the Notice Board by Sec.	CRd, WN

8. New Action Items: 8.1. Aberdeenshire Survey on Possible Reduction of Bedding Plants to CCs: A survey had been received from Landscape Services and returned. TCC responded negatively to a reduction of provision. Any decision will be by Aberdeenshire Council as part of the budgeting process in March. The survey was generated internal to the department. 8.2. Recent Road Traffic Accident on Beltie Road: The known information about the event was reviewed and it was decided no further action is required, except to reinforce the clear need for safe driving practices at all times. 8.3. Housing 2040 Consultation Report: CR attended the recent Housing 2040 Consultation Event in Aberdeen. The event was reasonably well attended. CR expressed his concern there was limited linkage to economic activity in housing planning. All the related materials are available here: https://www.gov.scot/publications/housing-2040/ 8.4. Red Squirrel Awareness Signs: Following an enquiry from local residents regarding possible road signs for red squirrel awareness on north St. Marnan Road, WM asked if Aberdeenshire Council can provide such signage. Clir. PA agreed to investigate what the Council can do and alternatives. Add to Action Log. 8.5. Offer of Letter ref TCC to Torphins Community from Alexander Burnett MSP: Following careful consideration TCC decided to decline this offer with thanks. Secretary to advise. Add to Action Log. 8.6. Proposed Major Changes to Torphins Bus Service Effective 6 th April 2020: Through the company and Aberdeenshire, TCC has been advised of proposed changes to Stagecoach bus services across Aberdeenshire, including significant changes inpacting the Torphins services. Feedback may be submitted with a deadline of 16 th February. The information was reviewed and community concerns already received discussed. TCC resolved as follows: Rev HS to submit a response expressing concerns on behalf of TCC. Additional publicity will be given via TCC media on the changes and feedback address bluebird enquiries@stagecoach	Item No.	Description	Owner
